

General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery

1. Applicability and general terms

1.1. Applicability of the general terms and conditions of sale and delivery

These General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery (“Terms and Conditions”) are valid for all legal relationships (offers, contract negotiations, contracts) between Brugg Kabel AG (“BRUGG CABLES”) and customers (“Customers”) regarding (i) the sale and delivery of goods or works (“Delivery Item”) and (ii) the supply of services (“Services”) by BRUGG CABLES to the Customers.

These Terms and Conditions build an integral part of all existing legal relationships and in particular the contracts between BRUGG CABLES and the Customer unless explicitly agreed otherwise. Provisions deviating from these Terms and Conditions shall only be legally binding if explicitly offered by BRUGG CABLES or explicitly accepted in writing by BRUGG CABLES.

By placing an order to BRUGG CABLES, the Customer confirms and accepts that the sale and delivery of the Delivery Items as well as the supply of Services shall be governed by these Terms and Conditions. BRUGG CABLES reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions at any time. Amendments shall be applicable upon notice to the Customer for all legal relationships between BRUGG CABLES and the Customer entered into thereafter.

Unless explicitly agreed otherwise by BRUGG CABLES in writing, general terms and conditions and/or other contractual documents issued or provided by the Customer are explicitly waived and excluded. This rule shall also apply in case the Customer encloses general terms and conditions or other documents to the order or “order confirmation” or discloses such general terms and conditions or other documents otherwise to BRUGG CABLES.

1.2. Offers and conclusion of the contract

All offers, price lists, product descriptions, prospects, plans and the like from BRUGG CABLES are not binding and may be amended or withdrawn at any time, unless explicitly stated otherwise in the respective document.

In case BRUGG CABLES issues an unbinding offer, the contract between BRUGG CABLES and the Customer only enters into effect as of the date of the confirmation of BRUGG CABLES. The confirmation may take place in form of a written order confirmation (declaration of acceptance), the signing of a written contract or by execution of the order by BRUGG CABLES. Orders and “declarations of acceptance” from the Customer are qualified as offer to conclude a contract only.

The order confirmations of BRUGG CABLES contain a detailed description of the Delivery Item and/or the Service. Possible change requests or discrepancies shall be submitted to BRUGG CABLES within two working days after receipt of the order confirmation. In case no order confirmation is issued, the description of the Delivery Item and/or the Service is evident from the offer of BRUGG CABLES and/or the signed written contract.

1.3. Form

Declarations in text form which may be submitted or recorded by electronic media (e-mail, sms and the like) are qualified as written declarations from a party. The evidence that such a declaration has been received and retrieved by the addressee is in the sender’s responsibility. Such declarations are considered as received at the time of their retrieval by the addressee.

1.4. Description of Delivery Items, Services, prospects plans and the like Length marks on Delivery Items sheaths are subject to production tolerance and are intended for information purposes only.

Orders from a Third Party are considered as orders on behalf of and on the account of the Customer. From these orders – in case of acceptance by BRUGG CABLES and independently from the legal relationship between the Customer and the Third Party – only BRUGG CABLES and the Customer shall be entitled and obligated.

Articles not stocked or customized (extra length, etc.) or other Delivery Items made to measure or according to customer specifications (“Custom-Built”) may only be ordered in written form. The Customer is committed to accept the full amount of the order.

Interim storage of the Delivery Items and the delivery on call are only limited possible and need to be requested by the Customer in advance and from case to case. Possible additional costs will be fully charged to the Customer.

The unloading of the Delivery Items is in the reasonability of the Customer.

The Customer may request at the time of the placement of the order from BRUGG CABLES to unload the Delivery Items ("Unloading"). The Unloading will be invoiced additionally to the Customer. In case the Unloading is requested by the Customer or a Third Party from the carrier or another third party authorized by BRUGG CABLES ("Associate BRUGG CABLES") directly at the Destination, the Associate BRUGG CABLES qualifies as authorized by the Customer. The instructions of the Associate BRUGG CABLES shall be followed in any event. BRUGG CABLES is not responsible for damages caused by non-observance of the instructions of the Associate BRUGG CABLES.

The Associates BRUGG CABLES are instructed to whether carry the Delivery Items to the Customers warehouse nor to personally reload and/or handle with Customers handling equipment. In case the Customer directly instructs the Associate BRUGG CABLES to carry out these works, BRUGG CABLES assumes no liability.

In case objected Delivery Items are processed by the Customer or a Third Party without prior written consent of BRUGG CABLES, the warranty ceases.

After the notification of defects by the Customer, BRUGG CABLES may up to its own discretion either inspect the objected Delivery Items on-the-spot or request that the Delivery Items are returned to BRUGG CABLES for inspection purpose. BRUGG CABLES will consider the notification and inform the Customer if the asserted defect is covered by the warranty or not. The Customer shall keep the objected Delivery Items until the clearing of the notification of defect.

In case a warranty claim exists, BRUGG CABLES will up to its own discretion either correct the detected defect free of charge or replace the Delivery Item or parts thereof. Subsequently, an acceptance test shall be made at the request of the Customer or of BRUGG CABLES. The right of the Customer to withdraw from the contract, to claim reduction of the purchase price or to carry out any measures itself on behalf of BRUGG CABLES is explicitly excluded.

In case no warranty claim exists, the Customer has to bear all cost incurred at BRUGG CABLES in connection with the notification being considered as unfounded. These costs may include costs for transportation, installation and labor. The invoicing shall take place accordingly to the provisions in clause 4 of these Terms and Conditions for Services rendered.
